How do I see the world?

ENTJ: MYERS-BRIGGS

E – Extraversion preferred to introversion
 Motivated by interactions with other people. Tends to enjoy a wide circle of acquaintances and gain energy in social situations.

N – Intuition preferred to sensing
 Tends to be more abstract than concrete. Attention usually focused on the big picture and future possibilities.

T – Thinking preferred to feeling
 Values objective criteria above personal preference. When making decisions, generally gives more weight to logic than to social considerations.

J – Judgment preferred to perception
 Tends to plan activities and make decisions early. ENTJs often try to predict outcomes and plan accordingly.

Who am I?

FAVORITE QUOTE

"Laughter and tears are both responses to frustration and exhaustion...I myself prefer to laugh, since there is less cleaning up to do afterward — and since I can start thinking and striving again that much sooner."
 —Kurt Vonnegut, Jr.

Need a second opinion (or two)?

"Laura March is extraordinarily gifted and talented. She seems endlessly resourceful and creative; there is literally nothing she has not been able to handle. She has my very highest recommendation."

—Dr. Michael Bérubé
 Supervisor
 Institute for the Arts & Humanities

"Laura combines the social justice mindset of an educator with the drive of a professional and the intellectual curiosity of an academic. I recommend Laura without reservation and would work with her again given the chance."

—Dr. Dana Carlisle Kletchka
 Supervisor
 Palmer Museum of Art
